

DONALD WILLIAM PLOWRIGHT, Captain, Yorkshire Dragoons T.A. Younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plowright, of Longstone Hall, nr. Bakewell, Derbyshire. He entered Grafton House in 1927, leaving in July, 1930 to join Messrs. Markham & Co. Ltd., as a pupil in their Chesterfield works, at the same time taking a course in Engineering at the Sheffield University. Leaving in 1935, he entered the family firm of Messrs. Plowright Bros. Ltd., Chesterfield. He joined the Royal Corps of Signals T.A. in 1933, and transferred to the Yorkshire Dragoons T.A. in 1938. In 1939 he went to Palestine, and later took an Intelligence course at G.H.Q., Cairo, and was promoted to the Staff. He was killed while returning from a special mission to Tobruk in 1941, when the plane was shot down over the sea.