

Plowright & Fowler

Family Trees
From 1676 to 2024

Notes

- 1st Baronet of Braemore; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George; Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh; Chief Engineer for the Forth Bridge
- 2nd Baronet of Braemore
- 3rd Baronet of Braemore; Captain of the 4th Seaforth Highlanders; killed near Richebourg-l'Avoué (France) during WWI
- 4th and last Baronet of Braemore
- Captain of the 2nd Cameron Highlanders; killed at the Second Battle of Ypres (Belgium) during WWI; commemorated at Menin Gate Memorial
- Plowright Brothers Ltd. founded in 1878 by Robert Plowright and three sons Robert, Henry James, and William Oliver
- Captain of the Queen's Own Yorkshire Dragoons; killed at Tobruk (Libya) during WWII; commemorated at Alamein Memorial

Graphical layout by Andrew Plowright v1.0.0, 2024-08-11